Three Appeals For Hungarian Relief Scheduled

Police Given Dead Animal Disposal Duty

A dead skunk at Main and Morton streets and another animal fatality on Elm st. took the spotlight at Monday's Selectmen's meeting.

Memories of the lingering skunk odor at the corner of Morton and Main streets, plus complaints that no one would haul away a carcass from Elm st. over the weekend, brought immediate action from the Board.

They voted to ask the Police Department to be responsible for disposing of dead animals for the

Voters May Get Chance To Act On "Greenway"

The voters may have a chance to express their opinion on preserving land in the town as a "greenway".

Planning Board Secretary Mrs. Virginia Hammond has suggested that an article be inserted in the 1957 town meeting warrant to acquire land for reservation purposes - thus giving the voters a chance to express an opinion on the "greenway" idea.

The Board's planning consultants have recommended the "greenway" - a project which would find the town preserving

John O'Connell of Punchard ave. has released a statement in which he takes issue with decisions of Town Counsel Vincent Stulgis and comments on recent town meeting actions.

The statement, also delivered to the Selectmen, follows:

"The facts I am presenting to your board are those which I attempted to place before the people at the first of the two recent town meetings. I indicated in my opening then that information in my possession tended to prove that the degradation of the March town meeting to an all-time low was the result of scheming

Asks Permanent Wage Committee

A permanent personnel board to handle salaries and wages for town employees, exclusive of teachers and elected officials, has been recommended for adoption at the annual town meeting.

The recently-appointed Compensation Committee, authorized last March to study wage classifications in the town, has filed a statement indicating that it cannot furnish detailed recommendations now on job classifications

SALK POLIO VACCINE IN PLENTIFUL SUPPLY

Thousands of Salk Polio shots are available for use here.

Board of Health Chairman Charles O. McCullom has announced that 3000 shots are available. Registration forms entitling the individual to receive the vaccine from his or her private physician will be available in the town's drug stores during the next week.

Anyone in the age group 20-29 is now eligible to receive the vaccine. McCullom also asked that parents of any children who have not had their first two shots fill out a card. In the 15-19 age bracket those who have not received their first shot are eligible.

All registration cards obtained at the drug stores must be completed and returned to the Board of Health office in the town hall. McCullom warned that the supply of vaccine must be used up within two weeks.

Plan Candy Sale

Andover Blue Bird and Camp Fire Leaders and Sponsors held their monthly meeting recently at the home of Mrs. Martin P. Burns, 11 Argyle st.

Coffee was served by Mrs. Mary C. Riley and Mrs. Webster I. Woodworth previous to the business meeting, which was in charge of Mrs. Gordon B. Lauder, chairman.

Final plans were completed for the annual Camp Fire and Blue Bird candy sale which is scheduled for the period of Dec. 1-15.

Mrs. A. Morris Campbell was appointed chairman to meet with Camp Fire leaders to plan the organization's participation in the annual Shawsheen PTA program to be held in February. Mrs. James D. Wilson will serve as Blue Bird chairman of the affair.

Those present included Mrs. Robert M. Foster, Mrs. A. Morris Campbell, Mrs. Alexander M. Blamire, Mrs. William F. Ammon, Mrs. Winslow F. Burleigh, Mrs. Webster I. Woodworth, Mrs. Margaret M. Canuel, Mrs. Mary C. Riley, Mrs. John C. Lowe, Mrs. Michael M. Pawlik, Mrs. James D. Wilson, Mrs. Michael J. Campagna, Mrs. Gordon B. Lauder, Mrs. Martin P. Burns, Mrs. James B. Harris and Mrs. Doris V. McCallum of the Boston staff.

Last week, the Notanche Camp Fire group, under the direction of Mrs. A. Morris Campbell, completed an interesting and useful project in connection with Outdoor Craft Honor 347. The girls successfully decorated a pine tree so that the birds could enjoy the prevailing holiday spirit. Tiny nut cups were filled with a mixture of peanut butter and bread crumbs; apples were sliced, wired and strung with ribbon; pine cones were stuffed with suet and nut meats were strategically placed. When completed the tree was very attractive to behold as well as being beneficial to the birds.

Cubs Make Plans

A planning meeting for Shawsheen Cub Pack 71 was held Dec. 3, at the home of Robert Paul, Cubmaster. Arrangements for the Pack meeting on Friday, Dec. 14, were discussed.

A parent's committee including Mr. and Mrs. B. Mulholland, Mr. and Mrs. Cataudella and Mr. and Mrs. J. Porter will serve at this program, which will include tree trimming, traditional gift exchange among the children with Santa Claus making his appearance and Christmas Carol singing. Den 4 will lead the opening ceremonies.

At their weekly Den meetings the boys are making gifts for their parents and ornaments for the tree which they will decorate at the meeting and will present them to the Children's Ward at Lawrence General Hospital.

Also under discussion were preliminary plans for the annual "Blue and Gold" Dinner, to be held on Thursday, Feb. 14, celebrating the birthday of Scouting. In charge of this program are Mr. and Mrs. R. Schwartz, Mr. and Mrs. J. Licciardello, Mr. and Mrs. J. Scuderi and Mr. and Mrs. G. Harper. Also present at Monday's meeting were Asst. Cubmaster David Cardinal, Troop Committee Chairman Thomas McQuade and Mrs. L. Bravacos, Mrs. J. Schmidt and Mrs. W. Dellart representing the Den Mothers.

New Hylands Assoc. Meet

Ralph Preble, Town Engineer, addressed the first organized meeting of the new Shawsheen Hylands Association Nov. 30, at the Shawsheen School. The sewerage and drainage problems in the area were discussed.

Mr. Preble explained the procedure to obtain sewerage from the town and how the Association could bring its problems before Town Meeting.

Winslow Burleigh, president, presided. The other officers are Vahey Gulezian, vice president; Mrs. Charles Collins, secretary;

John Souter, treasurer. Board Directors are Maurice Close, Shapiro, Harry Watkinson, Daniel Gill.

It was announced that members of the Association are assigned to various discussion groups to study the problems in the Hylands area. Later group leaders will give reports and facts to the large group for action.

Blue Fairies See Show

11-year-old David Wilson presented an original puppet show at a recent meeting of the Blue Fairies group of the Blue Birds. David, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson, wrote the script, designed and built the stage, the costumes for the puppets, sang all roles in the show, "The River to Grandmother House," was the theme of the comedy. After the show David led the girls in group singing.

The Blue Fairies have been busy fall making waste paper baskets, collecting books for Children's Ward at the Lawrence General Hospital and taking trips to points of interest in the area. Now the girls are making secret Christmas presents to their parents.

Members of the Blue Fairies group are Alison Dodd, Mary Harris, Judy Henderson, Ellen Keaney, Maureen Ter Margaret Warshaw and Pamela son. Mrs. James Wilson is advisor and Mrs. James Turner her assistant.

Pageant Eliminated

Parents and children of Shawsheen School are a little disappointed as the school Christmas Season approaches. For the time since the school opened, elaborate Annual Christmas Pageant will not be held.

This year the children will have Christmas Carols and have day observances in individual classrooms. The auditorium is available for the Annual Pageant because it is converted to a classroom until the new addition is completed.

O'CONNELL LISTS CHARGES IN LETTER

official ignorance, by town officials involved, of the relatively few rules of procedure governing town meeting. I specifically stated that the misguidance of the town counsel by quoting a law which is not in the law-books, must accept his share of the responsibility for the ugly mess which followed. He preferred not to answer. Parliamentary blocks stopped me cold at this point. All I intended to ask for were explanations-answers. Had I been permitted to proceed I would have stated that for the first time, in at least 20 years as an independent voice in town meeting, I wanted to be proven wrong; especially as I intended it to be my last appearance on the floor of town meeting. I would have also stated that whatever there might be of criticism, as a result of my research, 'would be of methods-not of men' especially where friendship is involved.

"Having utterly failed to present my information to the citizens in town meeting assembled, I now present them to your board, who hired our town counsellor, hoping that your stern questioning will elicit informative answers. As one who has strictly observed the amenities and courtesies I deemed it my duty to the people to present disturbing information before the open forum of the voters where the series of errors and blunders occurred; and where answers might prove my conclusions wrong. I wanted to present documentary evidence checked by the highest state authorities proving wrong the contention of the moderator-town counsel combination, that one or two mischievous individuals could (and did) thwart the majority will of the people. The only premise by which I can get these facts out to the 9000 voters of the town is this communication to your board showing the apparent incompetency of a town employee - the town counsel. By misinformation he balked efforts to protest.

"His statutory duty, to protect the interests of the people by his presumed knowledge of the state laws and town meeting rules of order, was ignored. He failed the people when he did not admonish the Moderator by citing the law as given in the Annotated Laws of the State of Massachusetts and as printed in The Moderator's Handbook: 'On questions of procedure the majority vote of the town is not subject to review by any Court.'

"The gloomy fact is that this attitude of error still stands. There have been no admissions of mistake. Again at the recent town meeting we heard the announcement that a unanimous vote was necessary. Engraved on the wire recorder, which I succeeded in getting into the meeting, will be found an official's statement of belief that something dire might happen if his erroneous attitude was changed. (The wire recording is thrilling listening. It has been run off for me by the operator, but when I came back to recheck myself I found that it had been placed in your hands. I presume it will be typed off by you.) Isn't it regrettable that a wire recording hadn't been made at the March meeting now involved in this controversy? There could have been no question as to who said what. The previous year the people had voted to have wire recordings for future town meetings. Who ruled it out?

"My study, starting with conferences in Boston, brought into focus a previous incident of misguidance, of which the town counsel was part, at the 1955 town meeting. The warrant called for meetings on successive Monday nights due to the large number of articles, which justified postponement to the second meeting. However, at the end of the first session the moderator-counsel coalition 'ruled' that there must be a wholly new warrant and published call. Chairman Collins of the Selectmen, well experienced as a legislator in parliamentary procedure, protested stating that we were simply carrying on through a legally postponed session. My protest following was based on the well-known truth that there might well be no quorum if a special call (two weeks or more delay) went out. The moderator-counsel coalition persisted. Your board's stand was proven correct when you called the State House the next morning. But the damage had been done. Most of the thousand people present would have been present the next Monday. What happens in such bungling situations? The energetic minority groups in favor of the remaining articles pack the meetings to get a quorum consisting of 'their sisters and their cousins and they have 'em by the dozens-and their aunts.' Huge sums are voted which probably would not be at a fully attended meeting.

"It is fair to conclude from such incidents that alarming leaps of the tax rate to ever higher levels - plateaus is the new word is in a large measure due to the dawdling, time wasting sessions due to what I have called on the floor 'legalistic absurdities'. Over an hour was consumed at the March town meeting on an incident of almost comical insignificance during much of the afternoon and again at night. Personally I don't like to think back to its termination by the moderator personally begging a single individual to let 1000 people have their way. Well within memory are town meetings of 60, 70 (perhaps one of eighty) being disposed of in one session containing articles equally controversial as more recent ones. Think of 31 articles recently taking two sessions!

"Over $180,000 was voted at a town meeting of questionable legality last year. There was no quorum present. The fire alarm was sounded, the responding volunteer firemen to be drawn in to swell the attendance to a quorum. It failed. Police cars, their loudspeakers blaring, swept out the bars, the library and cocktail lounges of understandably bewildered people, who came and naturally voted for money articles presented. (Come and get it - 389 people voted to spend $180,000.)

"Should your Board not tell your employee, the town counsellor, that the courts have held that there is no legal way to compel people to attend a town meeting, and, such being the case, the articles in the warrant can be held for the next annual town meeting?

"I will not include here my notes collected as I went back through newspaper files the past year indicating ignorance of state laws regulating town government. Giving one opinion to the board of Public Works upstairs and a directly contradictory one to the Selectmen downstairs while a frustrated citizen tries to find what's what. Eye-brows of intelligent readers might well rise in wonder reading a story in the Tribune of Sept. 26 when the Selectmen told petitioners that 200 names were necessary to get an article into the town warrant. Your board stated 'they were governed by the ruling of the town counsel'. A 'phone call to the secretary of states' office would

Christmas Seal Sale Lagging

Christmas Seal Sales are lagging behind last year, according to figures released Nov. 30 by Charles W. Lowrie, treasurer of the Essex County Health Association. In the first 14 days of the sale, $27,229.31 has been received, $3,675.92 short of last year at the same time.

Over 100,000 persons in 30 Essex County cities and towns received Seals in the mail this year and were asked to respond more generously than ever before. This year's goal is $80,000, an amount $10,207 over last year's total Seal Sales of $69,793.

Andover has given $1568.55 so far, compared with $1765.50 at the same time last year.

While the sale itself was behind last year's total at the same time, Mrs. Barbara G. Flagg, executive director of the Association, has pointed out that the sale will continue through Christmas. She urged residents of the county to mail their contributions to the Association right away, so that the vigorous program against tuberculosis planned for 1957 can be put into effect.

PHILLIPS RECEIVES SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS

Andover was one of four such independent boarding schools to receive a grant of $250,000. Others included Phillips Exeter Academy of Exeter, N. H., Mount Hermon School of Mount Hermon, Mass. and the Hill School of Pottstown, Pa.

The grant to the four schools totalled $1,000,000, the largest amount which any foundation has ever made available for scholarship aid to independent secondary education. Sharing in those grants were over 500 boys from 39 states, whose parents could not otherwise provide them with a secondary school training sufficiently rigorous as scholars and as citizens. The value of these scholarships ranged from $1,000 to full tuition, for an average of three years per boy, and in some cases included clothing, transportation, and incidental expenses.

A majority of the recipients were the sons of teachers, clergymen, government employees, skilled laborers, and widows. The largest number of parents fell within the $4000-$5000 annual income range, with an average of three dependents per family.

Commenting on the importance of the Donner Foundation, Mr. Kemper said "A very serious problem facing America today is the waste of manpower which results from the failure of qualified students to receive the education which they are capable of absorbing. The generosity of the Donner Foundation has enabled us to intensify our search for talented young people who might otherwise never have continued their education beyond the secondary school level. Thus the result of the Donner scholarship program is a direct frontal attack on this major problem."

PERMANENT COMMITTEE TO STUDY WAGES

The statement follows: "The Compensation Committee appointed by Town Moderator Roland Sherman last October to make a survey to evaluate the compensation and classify town employees has decided to recommend the adoption of a by-law at next Town Meeting to establish a Permanent Personnel Board. The committee believes that in the absence of any financial support from the town, there is too little time to prepare specific salary recommendations before the closing of the Town Warrant in January.

"The compensation committee, which was authorized at the March 1956 Town Meeting, has held seven meetings and feels that the best interests of the town would be best served by adopting a by-law under Section 108A of the General Laws of Massachusetts to provide for the legal classification of town positions by a permanent Personnel Board. It is not the present intention of the committee to recommend the classification of the salaries of school officers and elected town officers.

The committee represents the best judgment of the Compensation Committee. Many other towns in Massachusetts have successfully adopted the plan suggested by Section 108A. The Committee feels that the employees of the town are entitled to fair and impartial treatment of their wage and salary problems and that the taxpayers should be able to feel that the level of wage and salary is adequate, but not excessive. These two objectives are consistent with each other and will, in the opinion of the committee, be possible if the proposed by-law is passed. It is planned to make provision for an employee to have the opportunity to have his case reviewed by the Personnel Board. The recommended rate schedule as a whole must be fair and reasonable when compared to that of other similar towns and to the level of wages and salaries in the area. The plan being proposed by the Compensation Committee is designed to cover these objectives.

The Compensation Committee has surveyed salaries paid in over 30 communities in Massachusetts of about the same population size as Andover. While it does not plan to embody the typical salary rates found in this survey in its by-law recommendation, the material received from other communities will be analyzed and the results made available to the Town.

The statement follows:
The Compensation Committee appointed by Town Moderator Roland Sherman last October to make a survey to evaluate the compensation and classify town employees has decided to recommend the adoption of a by-law at next Town Meeting to establish a Permanent Personnel Board. The committee believes that in the absence of any financial support from the town, there is too little time to prepare specific salary recommendations before the closing of the Town Warrant in January.

The compensation committee, which was authorized at the March 1956 Town Meeting, has held seven meetings and feels that the best interests of the town would be best served by adopting a by-law under Section 108A of the General Laws of Massachusetts to provide for the legal classification of town positions by a permanent Personnel Board. It is not the present intention of the committee to recommend the classification of the salaries of school teachers and elected town officers.

The insertion of an article in the warrant for the 1957 Town Meeting represents the best judgment of the Compensation Committee. Many other towns in Massachusetts have successfully adopted the plan suggested by Section 108A. The Committee believes that the employees of the town are entitled to fair and impartial treatment of their wage and salary problems and that the taxpayers should be able to feel that the level of wage and salary is adequate, but not excessive. These two objectives are consistent with each other and will, in the opinion of the committee, be possible of accomplishment if the proposed by-law is passed. It is planned to make provision for an employee to have the opportunity to have his case reviewed by the Personnel Board. The recommended rate schedule as a whole must be fair and reasonable when compared to that of other similar towns and to the level of wages and salaries in the area. The plan being proposed by the Compensation Committee is designed to cover these objectives.

The Compensation Committee has surveyed salaries paid in over 30 communities in Massachusetts of about the same population size as Andover. While it does not plan to embody the typical salary rates found in this survey in its by-law recommendation, the material received from other communities will be analyzed and the results made available to the Town Meeting.

Meeting, Selectmen, Finance Committee and other interested groups of citizens. The Committee does not believe that the material gathered is specific enough, in the absence of detailed analyses of job content, to form the basis for detailed recommendations at this time.

"The Committee plans to attend the annual meeting of the Massachusetts Municipal Personnel Boards Association on Saturday, December 8th, in Framingham.

Members of the Committee are Kenneth C. Bevan, William MacKintosh, George C. Napier, John S. Sullivan and John C. Young."

Candy Sale Will Help Campfire Girls

December first marked the opening of the Annual Candy Sale for the Andover Campfire Girls.

Once again Blue Birds and Camp Fire Girls will make calls, door to door, with their specially designed carrying cases full of holiday mints and wearing their colorful costumes with navy blue skirts, white blouses and red vests or ties. Each box of candy bears the Camp Fire insignia, the crossed logs and flame symbolizing the hearth of the home and the camp fire of the outdoors.

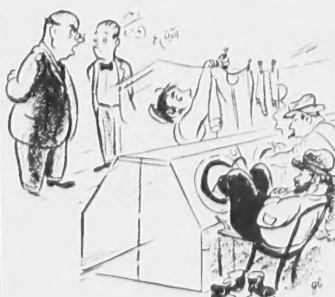

Mrs. Martin P. Burns, Chairman of the Candy Sale for the Andover District, announces that the sale will continue until Dec. 15. She and her committee members, Mrs. Gordon B. Lauder, Mrs. James Turner and Mrs. James B. Harris have been making the necessary arrangements for the distribution of the candy to leaders and girls throughout Andover.

"It's really a family affair", states Mrs. Burns, "with everyone getting in on the selling — mothers and fathers, as well as the girls! It is hoped that everyone in the community will support the sale wholeheartedly, for the proceeds help the individual groups of girls throughout Andover. It helps to balance the budget of the Council thus maintaining headquarters and professional staff, thereby making it possible to extend the Camp Fire Girls program by providing needed field service".

Additional boxes of candy may be secured by contacting the girls and their leaders, or Candy Chairman Mrs. Martin Burns.

James Blackmon of Charlotte, N. C. and a student at Phillips Academy, won the Chrysler Corporation-American Rocket Society $1000 science-youth award for building this rocket in the cellar of his home. While prevented from firing the missile by the Civil Aeronautics Administration, he did have a chance to show the rocket to Army missile experts, who praised the young man for the fundamental design and engineering. Jimmy is planning to attend either M.I.T. or the California Institute of Technology.

Residents of Shawsheen wondered what was going on when the construction crews moved in on No. Main st. A Lowell firm is constructing a dry cleaning plant there, in the section zoned for business. (Leone)

Support Hungarian Relief

Hungarian relief is a wonderful thing — for our hearts are truly sorrowful for the almost unimaginable suffering endured by those peace-loving people.

Here in Andover, a small but efficient committee has been formed to, first, accumulate clothing for the thousands of refugees now in Austria awaiting a place to start their lives anew.

And, secondly, the group will be responsible for one family, now in this country waiting for a new home.

The Red Cross, too, is seeking funds for use by its International headquarters to provide food and medicine for the refugees and for the other thousands still inside Hungary.

Both drives — the one for clothing and the other for money — will be held next week.

Support them, for seldom in our lifetime will we have such an opportunity again — an opportunity to help men, women and children who are absolutely destitute and homeless.

Phillips Plan Works

Phillips Academy's experiment in teacher recruiting seems to be successful — for the school is, for the second year, calling for applicants for teaching fellowships.

Last year, the Academy announced a novel plan — designed to attract more young men into the teaching profession and give them the practical, first-hand experience that would definitely prove whether the individuals had both teaching ability and a liking for the work. Through the plan, four young men were selected for the two-year program. They have taught for one year at the Academy, under the guidance of experienced faculty members and have taken part in extra-curricula activities as would any young teacher coming to a school like Phillips.

At the end of this first year, the young men's work is evaluated by the faculty and by themselves. If both evaluations indicate the man should remain in teaching, he is then given a year's financial assistance towards study in a graduate school or for study abroad.

The plan was a progressive step in filling the teaching needs of the country. The fact that the Academy will this year again select promising young men to begin their two-year program indicates that the experiment was a success. It is to be hoped that other schools may adopt this, or a similar approach, to encourage still more young college graduates to enter the teaching profession.

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago — December, 1906

Thomas Kyle was unanimously elected captain of next year's football team at a meeting of Punchard players last week. Kyle played quarterback in every game this year.

Next Monday is town pay day. A church sociable will be held in the South Church parlor tonight. Light refreshments will be served.

The Clover Club, a newly formed organization, will hold a dance in the Town Hall next Friday evening.

The weather the first of the week was a severe test of the new heating system at Bradlee School. The system, fortunately, stood up well.

No-school signals sounding at 8 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. applies to all schools below Punchard. The bell sounds for no-school for high school students at 7:15.

The Self Improvement Society met in the West Parish Tuesday, with Mrs. George Flint.

On account of the Lawrence, Lowell and District Association football league meeting being held in the Abbot Village Hall last Monday evening, the regular meeting of the local club was postponed until next Monday. The final match will be played between Methuen and Andover on the 15th in Glen Forest.

A neighborhood prayer meeting will be held Thursday night at the home of Mrs. George Shepard on Park st.

The teachers will be paid one installment of their annual salary on Monday.

A picture bulletin for Christmas use has been put in the reading room of the Memorial Hall Library with lists of stories and poems good for Christmas.

25 Years Ago — December, 1931

Like a bombshell out of the blue, the State Department of Public Works has repudiated its promise of several weeks ago to build a four-lane highway from the By-Pass to Andover Hill. Instead, the department will call for bids on a three-lane highway. No reason was given for completely changing the plans for highway the same as that run from the By-Pass to Reading. Cost of the road as now planned will be $100,000. The department has also said it will use bituminous macadam, a cheaper material than the cement and macadam intended to use.

The Historical Society received an anonymous gift of $500 recently. The money is earmarked for placing historical markers at various sites in the town and not to be used for general expenses.

The state has pointed out the proposed new institution, West Andover, in which 2000 patients would be maintained would be of some benefit to town. The state officials say day labor, including skilled workmen, would be hired from this institution, maintained there at state expense, would provide revenue for merchants because there is no effort made to produce anything for these people except board and room.

Several children were taken from quarantine this week to the Board of Health. They had been in contact, by riding on the school bus, with a youngster who came down with scarlet fever. Board now feels these youngsters are safe to resume contact with other children.

10 Years Ago — December, 1946

A mixed chorus will sing Handel's Messiah Dec. 15 at Cocca Chapel. Over 100 voices are included in the chorus, which has been busy rehearsing Tuesday evenings.

Rehearsals are well under way for the Christmas play "Whimsical Chimes Rang" which will be presented by the Junior High School Dec. 18 for the Parent-Teacher Association.

The annual meeting of the Andover Village Improvement Society was held Monday night. Dr. Carlton was elected president.

The League of Women Voters is conducting a campaign for voters here. Interested women are urged to contact Mrs. Harold H. Ton, president.

PPET PLAY FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

All boys and girls are invited to the Memorial Hall Library on Saturday morning, Dec. 8, to see a puppet play and to see a puppet show. The famous story "Robin Hood." The young people who have made the costumes, costumes and wigs. The players are: Taylor, Ricky Anderson, Lay and Raymond Lab. Tickets are required. The show will open at 10:45 a.m. about an hour.

Regional Planning Will Be Necessary

The Planning Board has been advised that the economic well-being of Andover is tied in tightly with that of Greater Lawrence.

Planning and Renewal Associates of Cambridge, the Board's consultants, have recommended that two steps be taken in view of the close economic ties.

The consultants would make this community's industrial areas competitive with areas in other, nearby towns by providing access to the areas, water and by considering the housing needs of new workers.

Secondly, they would have the town prepare public opinion to accept the idea of a regional planning commission.

In discussing its recommendations, the consultants pointed out that some 2000 acres have been opened for industrial use in Greater Lawrence — while industrial space in Lawrence itself is limited. Thus, they said, surrounding communities will get more than their share of new industries and will be in competition. But with the future indicating less than maximum use of the 2000 acres, only those with good access and available water will be in demand. Thus the consultants feel that Andover, although other facilities are favorable, should take steps to make water available in sufficient quantities to be competitive with other sections. One step in that direction might be to tie in with the Lawrence water supply for the West Andover industrial section, adjacent to the Lawrence industrial park where plenty of water now is available.

The report also suggested that planning with Wilmington might make it possible to provide water to the Ballardvale-Lowell Junction industrial area, as well as adequate service roads into the section.

The report also warned that unless the towns are willing to provide modest lot-size requirements for lower cost housing for workers, they will presumably move into Lawrence and that city will compete all the more strongly for industry in order to broaden its tax base.

But the Board also suggested that the BPW, which once refused to have anything to do with the fatalities, reconsider its action.

Sunday's complaint to Selectman Sidney P. White was from an Elm st. resident, who said a request to the Police Department to remove an animal was referred to the Board of Health. That agency referred the caller to the Board of Public Works. None took the responsibility, however.

Several months ago the Selectmen suggested that a BPW man be available during working hours to go with the police to pick up dead animals. The Police Department would do so at night, the Selectmen explained, turning the animal over to the BPW in the morning for disposal at the dump. But the BPW turned thumbs down on the suggestion, saying the employees of that Board couldn't be spared from other jobs. At a recent joint meeting of town boards, the BPW was asked to reconsider the matter, but apparently has not done so yet.

"The feeling of helplessness and frustration I find in talking to hundreds of people during the last seven months is as nothing compared to an almost unanimous anxiety in their questions 'What's become of the secret ballot?' It's supposed to be guaranteed to them by a by-law written and presented by me to the voters in 1951 and overwhelmingly adopted under the previous Moderator. The Moderator accepted my plan for its quick operation simply giving to each voter as he, or she, comes into the hall, a panel of ballots — a method in itself suggesting its use for any large money expenditure article, or a big controversial issue. Rehearsed tellers quickly collected and counted them at the platform supervised by a member of the registrars of voters or the town clerk. This custom was followed during the previous moderator's term and was so efficient that a complete and absolutely accurate count could be announced in eight minutes.

"Why was the 'custom' of giving out the ballots at the door stopped? At the last town meeting, as there seemed a likelihood that the ballot might be called for, I asked the town clerk where they were. His only reply was 'They are available.' The chief of police, in whose custody they are usually placed, told me he hadn't seen them. If they were not in the building, which I had a right to conclude, it would have taken the better part of an hour to deliver, unpack, distribute, collect and count.

"I am able to predict, as a result of my research and consultations, that a fool proof and official-proof law compelling the delivery of the ballot into the hands of the voters, to tuck under their arms as their declaration of independence and bill of rights, will be presented to the voters for adoption before March Town Meeting.

"The material herewith I present to the consideration of your board well realizing that action, if any, can be taken only insofar as it concerns the acts of the town counsel.

Selectmen's Business

While discussing abatement requests Monday night, the selectmen-assessors' Chairman, Sidney White, commented that the board realizes that many discrepancies in valuations exist. That is why the board asked for, and received, money for tax maps, the first step in a comprehensive revaluation of the town.

The Telephone Company granted permission to locate a new pole on Gleason st.

Eugene Mercier asked permission to store dynamite on Lupine rd. on a lot smaller than required. Said he hoped underground storage of the explosives would make it permissible. Was told to check with the state Fire Marshal and then with the Board of Appeals.

Letter of thanks was sent to Alderman Louis J. Scanlon of Lawrence for allowing Andover to house prisoners in the cells in Lawrence while new cells here were being constructed.

Board of Public Works

Hearing on removal of three trees off Argilla rd., requested by Mr. Ratte, held with two members present. Approval granted for removal but Mr. Ratte will try to cut down only two trees, leaving the third if new road can be constructed without harming it.

Robert Norton and William Partridge given permanent status - Norton on Tree Department and Partridge on Highway Department. Both have been working for the town over four months.

Members of a mosquito control firm discussed measures to control mosquitoes here. They said three sprayings would cost about $5000, one in the spring for the larvae and two during the height of mosquito season. The Maynard firm did such work for the state during last summer's drive against the insects.

Residents of Lockway rd. and Carmel rd. appeared to discuss sewer assessments.

natural features such as brooks, wooded areas and the like.

The subject came up for discussion last week at the Planning Board session while the board was signing a sub-division plan off Argilla rd. Fred Doyle's plan had been approved and was waiting for signing after the legal 20-day waiting period. So while it could not be affected itself, board members pointed to a brook running through part of the development as the sort of area that might be preserved.

Chairman Lee Noyes and member Edward P. Hall thought the "greenway" idea should not be pushed at this time, while Atty. Fredric O'Brien said he might be in favor of doing something about it now if an area presented itself that was worth saving. He didn't believe the Doyle brook was such an area, however.

Both Mrs. Hammond and member Donald Thompson believed that the town should take immediate steps to establish a "greenway" because of the rate of building which might use up areas needed for such a project. Mr. Thompson called the members' attention to Westchester County in New York where the use of reservations and planted strips have, he said, enhanced the value of the property as well as made it much more attractive.

they have reached their adopted countries. Contributions to it may be left at all three Andover banks, according to Selectman Stafford Lindsay, representative to the Greater Lawrence committee from this town.

But while the three groups seek public support for Hungarian relief, the Andover Committee for Hungarian Relief has also taken steps to sponsor a Hungarian family here. The group, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Munro Leaf, has made all arrangements to have the family live here, including finding work for the man, a house where the family can live, medical and dental care and offers of furniture and household help.

It is understood that the two agencies designated to collect money here are the International Rescue Committee and the Red Cross, while the third organization is seeking public support only in its clothing drive.

The Red Cross drive is being run to meet a quota assigned by the National Red Cross, according to executive secretary Barbara Loomer. She said precinct volunteers will conduct the canvass next Wednesday night and asked that anyone interested in helping out during the one-night campaign contact the Red Cross headquarters.

To avoid confusion which has previously occurred, she asked that all checks be made out to the "American Red Cross, Hungarian Relief".

The International Rescue Committee, although a newcomer to this area, is said to be an established organization which works through the various sponsoring agencies, such as the International Institute, to rehabilitate Hungarian refugees when they reach their new countries.

The local committee that has already agreed to sponsor one family cooperated with the Institute for that purpose. Members of that committee include, besides Mrs. Leaf, Mrs. Samuel Rogers, treasurer; Mrs. Karl Roehrig, secretary and the following executive group: Mrs. Richard L. Barton, Mrs. George A. L. Brown, Mrs. Allan Gillingham, Mrs. Walter Caswell, Mrs. Alfred W. Fuller, Mrs. Fred I. Kent, Mrs. C. James Kittredge, Mrs. Frank Jackson and Mrs. Frank Eccles.

Many Administrative Problems Go With Move To New School Hylands Assoc. Wants New Sewer

Residents of Shawsheen Hylands want public sewers installed in their district.

Atty. Maurice Close and William Schmidt spoke to the Board of Public Works Monday night. They asked the proper steps to take in order to get the subject into the annual town meeting next March.

Atty. Close told board members Alex Henderson and Leroy Wilson that the Board of Health has declared a health menace exists in the area. Septic tanks generally are not working well, Atty. Close explained, with many residents having constant trouble.

Henderson suggested that perhaps Town Engineer Ralph Preble could help the residents estimate the cost of a sewer there. Then an article could be placed in the warrant for that amount, with a betterment assessment clause.

But Henderson also pointed out that a recent proposal from consulting engineers Camp, Dresser and McKee for a study of the sewer system throughout town may be accepted. If the board decides to ask for some $7500 for that survey, Henderson said, the Shawsheen Hylands section would be included in the study.

However, both Atty. Close and Mr. Schmidt suggested that immediate action must be taken to prevent a serious health menace from developing. If the results of such a survey were awaited, they said, nothing could be done for many months while more immediate steps can be taken by inserting a special article in the warrant.

Mr. Schmidt represented the newly-formed association of residents, who are seeking answers to such problems as the sewage disposal one.

An important event of this school year is the prospect of moving into the new high school on Shawsheen rd. One of the most frequently asked questions at present concerns the date on which the move will be effected. A feeling of great anticipation among both students and teachers is evidenced on this by the number of times it finds its way into conversations.

Many problems naturally present themselves with the move. Large numbers of text and library books must be transported. The most effective way must also be found to move all of the special science, music and office equipment. At the present time there is a committee of faculty members working with Headmaster Lindsay J. March to plan for all these undertakings. It is also felt that two of the school's most prominent organizations, The Student Council and the Service Club, will be of great assistance in these matters.

The school itself has been designed for better educational opportunities with the theme of more and better facilities carried throughout the building. One of these special features which results in greater convenience for both teachers and students are rooms adjacent to class rooms that may be used for special study and advanced projects. There will also be rooms for corrective work in physical education, conference rooms adjoining the library for extra study and committee work on reports and a room especially designed for club meetings and other activities.

In the science Department, plans have been made for project rooms in which apparatus can be set up without disturbing other classes. Facilities are being provided for a student bank for the deposit of the funds of school organizations. And a console for the public address system is being set up to operate from the office.

Headmaster Lindsay J. March hopes to bring other problems and points of interest to the public's attention as the high school nears its completion so that the public will better understand the complications that arise out of such a situation.
